Workshop
on “Good Touch and Bad Touch”

Dear Parents,

Children learn about emotions in the same way that they learn other things such as reading and writing. It is our moral duty to take care of their feelings and emotions. To create awareness among the little ones about their well-being, good health and safety, Nursery department of our school is conducting an awareness workshop on ‘Good Touch and Bad Touch’ for the parents of Pre Primarians on 15th September 2015, Tuesday at _____ in the school premises.

Every thing starts from home and from you being the parents are the role models to your kids. The motive behind this workshop is to make you aware through various activities about the sensitive issue of Good touch and Bad touch, so that you can train your child and instill in them various ways if they are in some risky situation as children are fast learners and this age is age of fast assimilation of things and circumstances so whatever is taught to them now they can easily store in their minds. The workshop will acquaint you with the various safety measures for self guarding against any child abuse, harassment etc. The workshop will be an interactive session which will give you insight to understand this issue.
